ABOUT US

Tibet World was started February 2013 with the aim of helping Tibetan refugees in McLeod Ganj, India, through education programs. What started as a small, one room school is now a thriving organization. We have had over 500 international volunteers and over 1,300 students have benefited from Tibet World's programmes.. We provide language and conversation classes in English, German, Tibetan, French and Chinese at all different levels.

Our Vision:

Tibet World is a role model of a compassionate organization; committed to developing inner peace, self reliance and building a more harmonious world.

Our Mission:

Tibet World Provides a platform for promoting education, raising cultural awareness and imparting Tibetan values to the world by inspiring people to initiate compassion, harmony, and peace.

EXCHANGE

Tibet World would like to coordinate your group or university's next visit to Dharamshala. We provide a customizable experience that is tailored to your group's interests and needs. Tibet World can accomodate groups of all sizes and experiences. We are a flexible organization that would like to offer your group an in-depth look into the Tibetan community. In addition to our programme, we can also offer internships and coordinate volunteer service placements for groups and universities. For more information about our services and pricing, please contact us directly. We also have affordable hostel rooms for our guests, located within the building.

"The discussions at Tibet World were professional and informative, but also personal and impactful. There is no better way to learn about the Tibet issue than Tibet World's programming"

Cameron Hickert, University of Denver Student
