Where we were in 2021

In spite of the fact that we couldn't hold the same event as we did before the pandemic, we still felt that we were able to celebrate all the programs we have run for people this year.

Educational Program

We provided international classes online; English Online Class, French Online Class, and Chinese Online Class. It was challenging to find teachers who could educate students online, but we were fortunate enough to find dedicated teachers and students who were keen to learn. We had over 100 students who joined our programs in 2021.

a) January 2021

We completed an online international language program on 20th Jan 2021. It was the first time for us to organize online classes

b) May 2021

From 17th May 2021 to 16th July 2021, Tibet World started a new online Chinese course for two months. We offered a one-hour beginners' level course at 8:30 am, and an elementary level course from 9:30 am- 10:30 am.

c) July 2021

On 25th July 2021, we completed our second language course.

d) August 2021

We organized an Online Chinese Language course from 2nd August to 1st October 2021. The course was available in three levels: Elementary, Beginner, and Intermediate.

e) September 2021

From 1st September to 29th October 2021, Tibet World organized an online French Course, (elementary level). Its main objective was to focus on delivering knowledge about practical communication.

Cultural program

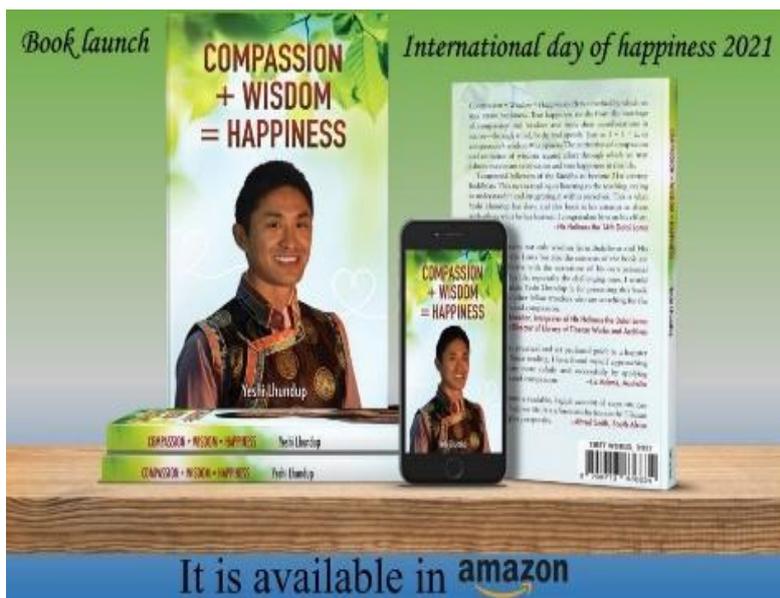

We provided four Happiness workshops online. Its main goal of it is to bring happiness and peace to people. In these times of pandemic, there is a major emotional crisis in the world. Every person has challenges in calming their minds and maintaining happiness throughout their daily life.

We, at Tibet world, organized a happiness workshop on 16th Jan 2021, where we discussed how compassion and wisdom combined together can create Happiness. This was our first happiness workshop, and it was conducted in collaboration with the Tumaini organization.

Book Launch Compassion + Wisdom= Happiness

Compassion + Wisdom = Happiness offers a method by which we may attain happiness. True happiness results from the marriage of compassion and wisdom, then manifesting itself in the actions of mind, body, and speech. Just as $1 + 1 = 2$, compassion + wisdom = happiness. The cultivation of compassion and evolution of wisdom requires effort through which we may achieve maximum satisfaction and true happiness in this life.

Reviews

I commend followers of the Buddha to become 21st-century Buddhists. This means reading or listening to the teaching, trying to understand it, and integrating it within ourselves. This is what Yeshe Lhundup has done and this book is his attempt to share with others what he has learned. I congratulate him on his effort.

—His Holiness the 14th Dalai
Lama

This book contains not only wisdom from Buddhism and His Holiness the Dalai Lama but also the contents of the book are made more effective with the narrations of his own personal experiences in his life, especially the challenging ones. I would like to congratulate Yeshe Lhundup la for presenting this book to benefit many other fellow travelers who are searching for the light of wisdom and compassion. —Geshe Lhakdor, interpreter of His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Director of Library of Tibetan Works and Archives

This is a simple, practical and yet profound guide to a happier life and world. Since reading, I have found myself approaching difficult problems more calmly and successfully by applying greater wisdom and compassion. —Liz Adams, Australia

This book presents a readable, logical account of steps one can take to ensure a happier life. It is a fine introduction to the Tibetan Buddhist principles perspective. —Aftred Smith, South Africa

In celebration of the International Day of Happiness, I had the opportunity to launch my first book COMPASSION + WISDOM = HAPPINESS at the Library of Tibetan Works and Archives.

The occasion was graced by the precious presence of Geshe Lhakdor la, Director of Tibetan Library. This book came into existence with the support of so many people along the way. My sincere and heartfelt

Thank you goes to His Holiness for his teachings, and advice from which I learned a lot. I am very thankful for Geshe Lhakdor la for his tremendous support as always, my big brother Jampa Tashi for his guidance, and Dr. Carol for editing the book, Australia Tibet Support Group Mum Maryanne, Rose, Liz, and all the members

Thank you, my fellow staff, staff of the library, all the media, and my friends for making this event a very successful one.

If you'd like to buy Compassion + Wisdom = Happiness, it is available online.

Social Service program

We gave out food bags to slum areas, nuns, and others who were in need of those. As part of our support, we also provided regular assistance to 10 victims of Covid 19.

The World Compassion in Action Day - Tuesday, July 6th, 2021

We celebrated H.H the Dalai Lama's 84th birthday by inaugurating World Compassion in Action Day. We celebrated the 6th of July as World Compassion in Action Day. We practice compassion in actions on this day.

Giving out food bags programs: This time we gave out food bags to slum areas and others who were in need of those. During this pandemic, everyone was facing challenges, especially the lower classes who have been facing much more difficulties. It was our hope that we were able to ease some of their burdens.

We distributed rations to 17 needy families on 5th July 2020.

We also distributed rations to 20 needy nuns and 4 needy persons.

We celebrate H. H the Dalai Lama's birthday as World Compassion in action day!

We have been hoping that human beings show some compassion in their actions on 6th of July.

Request: We would like to request all the human beings to celebrate compassion in action day and do something following three actions on the 6th of July.

We need to speak compassion in action.

We need to think compassion in action.

We need to act compassion in action.

“I believe that at every level of society – familial, tribal, national, and international – the key to a happier and more successful world is the growth of compassion. We do not need to become religious, nor do we need to believe in an ideology. All that is necessary is for each of us to develop our good human qualities” by His Holiness Dalai Lama.

We want to say thank you very much to those people who support our give-away food bags project.

Other Events

Event with Bharat Tibet Sahyog Manch Bharat Tibet Sahyog Manch and the Tibetan settlement office jointly organized an event with the support of 18 NGOs in Dharamsala on 8th Nov 2021, from 10 am to 12:30 pm. We had the honor to have Major General G.D Bakshi Ji, a retired Indian army officer, he also spoke in support of Tibet's cause. We also got an opportunity to present him with a white scarf and a book written by our director, Yeshe Lhundup which is Compassion plus Wisdom equals Happiness.

Dear Mr.Yeshi lhundup,

We extend a warm thank you to you and your organization for donating to Mother Kelsang Choiquey Welfare Society, Dirang, an extraordinarily huge number of books on varied subjects and topics on March 24th,2021. This help from your society will be extremely helpful in constructing a library in our village.

Mother Kelsang Choiquey Welfare Society is a non-profit set up that mainly aims at imparting education, focusing primarily on underprivileged children. We realized the need for having a library on our premises which can give the students more options to explore the world of knowledge by reading. But due to financial constraints, we were unable to construct one on our premises. Now with your kind help, we will be able to create a library for our students and youths as well, it will be the first library in our entire village.

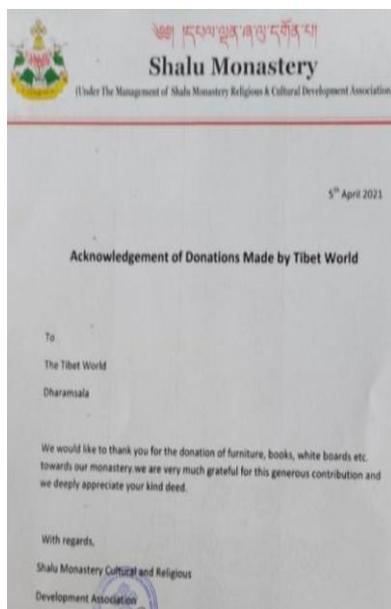

Once again we would like to express our gratitude towards your kind gesture. We will always be thankful to your organization for coming forward and helping these children with their education. We are extremely fortunate to have you as our magnanimous donor.

Sincerely,

Rinzin Pema
